  - b. The minimum qualification of the beneficiary girl has to be 8th Pass or equivalent. However, in case of school drop outs, following guidelines shall apply;
    - i. During the next three years i.e., from financial year 2022-2023 to 2024-2025 restructured guidelines shall be implemented irrespective of the education status of the beneficiary girl.
    - ii. From 01-04-2025 onwards beneficiary girl has to compulsorily produce a certificate for having passed 8th Class or equivalent.

  - d. The identified beneficiary girl should apply at least one month in advance (before date of marriage) to the concerned District Social Welfare Officer along with proof of marriage, proof of age, copy of AAY or PHH ration card and Aadhaar card.

Benefits

4. The eligible beneficiary girl shall receive an amount of ₹50,000/- (rupees fifty thousand only) as one time financial assistance before her marriage. The financial assistance shall be directly transferred into the individual bank accounts of the beneficiaries (marriageable girls) through DBT mode.

The applicant girl shall apply to concerned District Social Welfare Officer atleast one month before her marriage along with proof of age/ date of birth, copy of AAY or PHH ration card, marriage card, education qualification certificate and Aadhaar card. DSWO shall verify the details of the beneficiary regarding her marital status & age and shall submit the case before the Deputy Commissioner along with all requisite documents and his/her recommendations. It is also to be ensured mandatorily by the DSWOs that the same beneficiary should not have availed the financial benefit for the same purpose under any other UT/Centrally Sponsored Scheme especially Ladli Beti Scheme.

Deputy Commissioner shall get a survey conducted (through Chief Education Officer) of school drop out girls especially from PHH and AAY families and motivate them to join formal/informal schooling and ensure that such girls attain education atleast upto 8th Class so that they may not be deprived of financial assistance under SMAS.
